SOLD Record price for Kingslangley Rd.

Beautifully presented architect-designed Federation-style residence built on original sandstone in a quiet, private setting on a huge 1,012 sqm (quarter acre) block with district and Harbour views. A lovely family home over three levels with character, space and light. Located close to the city in a highly sought-after, quiet, wide street with school and bus within 100 metres and shops and major facilities, including St Leonards station, nearby. A stunning, unique Japanese-inspired garden with granite bridge over a koi pond leads you to a home that has everything:
Several separate indoor and outdoor private entertaining spaces
Elegant formal lounge room with original stained glass windows and fireplace
Spacious family room flowing to huge full-width entertaining deck with district and Harbour views
