Outstanding Inner City Hideaway!

Reminiscent of the buildings that dominate New York's city skyline, St James Apartments was built in 1926 and stands tall and proud as a striking example of the Chicago School of Architecture.

This unfurnished 6th floor apartment's urban outlook, classic proportions and cosmopolitan lifestyle address make it an ideal city pad.

Located on the edge of the CBD, between Stanley Street's acclaimed dining hub and historic Hyde Park, it's set in a vibrant urban village precinct surrounded by sidewalk cafés, restaurants, nightclubs, galleries and theatres.
