A Gorgeous Family Home

A picturesque stylishly-renovated 1940s double brick home located on the coveted high side of a whisper quiet leafy avenue.

Featuring four spacious bedrooms, two stylish bathrooms and a level secluded and private backyard with established gardens, there is ample room for enjoying this wonderful family home.

The lounge dining features a period P&O window and a gorgeous oversize Juliette balcony off an adjoining sitting room from which crimson sunsets may be enjoyed over the bush land park setting. There is also an additional entertaining area off the front gardens.

The home features generous internal storage with custom cabinetry and bookshelves in addition to a large storage room under the home, which could be converted to a further room. The home also features an oversize lock up garage, secure high-quality custom fencing and ducted air conditioning.

Located within easy distance to Greenwich and Lane Cove shopping villages in addition to hospitals, schools and transport including bus, train and ferry.
