Generous Federation Home with World Class Views

Positioned high on the Greenwich Peninsula, this sun drenched, rear-to-north facing Federation home circa 1907, offers sublime panoramic views that are quintessentially Sydney. Gaze out over the glimmering expanse of the harbour from the wide wrap-around verandah and take in Harbour Bridge and the iconic city skyline.

A home of historic character and grace, with elegantly maintained interiors.

Featuring High ornate ceilings, different in every room and original timber floors. Generous bedrooms and expansive hallways, wonderful flow-through design between elegant formal lounge and dining rooms.
