On the market for the first time since it was built in 2004, this spectacular architect-designed residence has been masterfully crafted with high-quality finishes to deliver an idyllic living experience. Stretching out over two exquisitely-appointed levels, this elegant modern home delivers multiple living zones, a sweeping open-plan design bestowed with lots of natural light, and effortless indoor/outdoor flow to a number of private outdoor zones.

Privately tucked away behind a secure gated driveway in the exclusive Osborne Park enclave, this striking home offers true serenity and soothing leafy outlooks.

This idyllic family location is surrounded by beautiful Lane Cove bushland, the golf course, tennis club, 1.3km from Lane Cove Village shops and eateries and with bus services at the door to Sydney CBD, St Leonards train station and the Greenwich ferry wharf.
